

2017 Membership Form

We work with residents, businesses, elected representatives, city offices and other community organizations for a better neighborhood. Programs and volunteers beautify the community, improve public safety, fight crime, provide fun things to do, keep you informed, and provide forum for you to help shape your community. Membership follows the calendar year and entitles you to invitations to special events, voting rights at general membership meetings; two votes per family membership; one vote each for an individual or business.
